

Assesing the Dominican Republic's Readiness to Compete in Global Semiconductor and PCB Value Chains

Víctor Bisonó Haza,

Minister of Industry, Commerce and MSMEs
Dominican Republic

January 30th, 2024 - Washington, D.C.

MICM

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Strategic Destination for Nearshoring

MICM

HOW ARE WE CONNECTED

AERIAL CONECTIVITY

8
INTERNATIONAL AIRPORTS

15,800
INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS (AVERAGE PER MONTH, 2023)

72
COUNTRIES ALL OVER THE WORLD (2023)

TERRESTRIAL CONECTIVITY

1,395 KM
MAIN HIGHWAYS

2,412 KM
SECONDARY HIGHWAYS

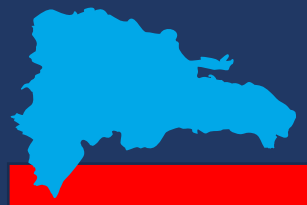

1,620 KM
TERTIARY HIGHWAYS

MARITIME CONECTIVITY

18
PORTS

7th
BEST PERFORMANCE IN MARITIME CONNECTIVITY IN LAC (LSCI, 2022)

43th
GLOBAL POSITION (LSCI, 2022)

Solid investment Destination

MULTIPLE COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGES

1. Political and Social Stability
2. World Class Infrastructure and Logistics
3. Excellent Connectivity: Air and Maritime
4. Robust Legal Framework and FTA with U.S, E.U. and others
5. Young Competitive and Qualified Labor Force
6. Tax Incentives and Free Zones 100% Exempt

Free Zones
Regimes

Growth 38.4% from 2020 to 2023
198,000 Formal Jobs

MICM

Free Zones

820 companies

MICM

Strategic Partners

Assesing the Dominican Republic's Readiness to Compete in Global Semiconductor and PCB Value Chains

Víctor Bisonó Haza,

Minister of Industry, Commerce and MSMEs
Dominican Republic

January 30th, 2024 - Washington, D.C.

MICM